

Event: Book signing--- Local author Isabel Huff

Event location: Troy Library

Event date: Monday, February 8 @ 4:00 PM

Say Goodbye to Gert – by Isabel Huff

Gertie has packed up her old pickup truck, "Pattycake," and is leaving her husband and their Oregon cattle ranch behind. She doesn't quite know where she's going or where she'll end up, but she bravely sets off, determined to carve out a better life for herself.

What begins as a need to escape a bad marriage turns into an emotional road trip in which Gertie will have to face the secrets of her past and make amends with the people who really matter to her. Set in the western and southwestern United States, Say Goodbye to Gert is a study of the strength and courage of a hardworking woman whose life has never been easy. Will she finally find the happiness she longs for? Or will her colorful past get in the way?

This event is free and open to the public.
Refreshments provided by the Friends of the Troy Library.

For more information contact the Troy Library at 208-835-4311.